Amanda Roggenbuck, District 1 County Commissioner is holding Roundtable with Roggenbuck events throughout her district. "My goal is to make the government process more inclusive and available. I want people to be active, ask questions, and make suggestions," said Roggenbuck.

In an effort to make addressing concerns, questions and comments more convenient for residents, Roggenbuck is working with the local units of government in District 1 to hold Roundtable meetings prior to the regularly scheduled local municipality meetings. This approach allows residents to have direct contact with two units of the government that represents them in one location and time.

Roggenbuck will be holding a Roundtable with Roggenbuck on July 20, 2009 from 6:30 pm – 7:30 pm, at Fairgrove Township Hall, located at 1559 S. Main Street, Fairgrove. Everyone is invited to attend and have direct input on local government. "I am excited to sit down with the residents regularly in a location that is close to their home and discuss local issues of concern to them," said Roggenbuck.

Commissioner Amanda Roggenbuck can be reached via email at aroggenbuck@tuscolacounty.org, or phone at 989-674-0000. She welcomes your input, information, and questions.
