

TUSCOLA COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

2023-17

Resolution Honoring Gina Gohs

Whereas, Gina Gohs, Secretary II in the Prosecuting Attorney's Office, will be retiring from Tuscola County effective July 14, 2023 has been an asset since Day One to the Friend of the Court, the Prosecuting Attorney's Office, the County and its citizens; and

Whereas, Gina began her employment with Tuscola County as a Bench Warrant Specialist at the Friend of the Court Office in 2008. She continued in this department until 2021, when she transferred to the Prosecutor's Office; and

Whereas, Gina has undertaken her important work as a public servant with a unique level of dedication, always taking pride in her work and striving to learn more and seek improvement through training and interacting with colleagues in similar roles around the State; and

Whereas, Gina is well respected by those she works with both inside and outside of the Prosecutor's Office. She has fulfilled a specialized role in the office with extraordinary attention to detail and has also embodied the goals established by the Office of courtesy, respect and professionalism; and

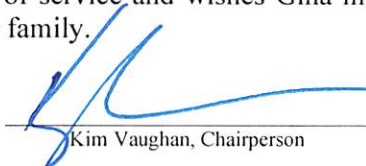

Whereas, individuals who have been beset with extraordinarily difficult personal life challenges have been assisted by Gina with grace and dignity. Countless children's lives have also been positively impacted through Gina's efforts; and

Whereas, Gina improves the daily environment of the office through her attitude, demeanor and genuine concern for others; supporting them through their own personal and professional challenges instinctually and without hesitation; and

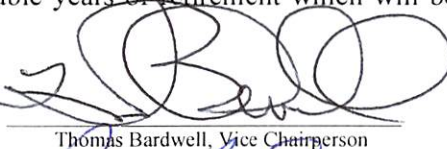

Whereas, Gina understands the powerful impact a positive attitude has on a team of individuals striving to accomplish complicated goals and has made the office and community a far better place as the result of who she is as a person; and

Whereas, Gina has more than earned the right to retire, but her contributions as a valued employee will be missed and her impact as a person will leave a significant and incalculable void.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that on behalf of the residents of Tuscola County, the Board of Commissioners commends Gina Gohs, Secretary II for her valuable contributions to Tuscola County during her many years of service and wishes Gina many enjoyable years of retirement which will be a benefit to both her and her family.
