MEMBERS ABSENT: Matthew Koch and Brian McComb.

OTHERS IN ATTENDANCE: Bill Lutz Tuscola County Board of Commissioners, Mike Miller Tuscola County Interim Administrator and Kim Vaughan Tuscola County Board of Commissioners.

MINUTES OF PREVIOUS MEETING: To be approved at next regular meeting.

OLD BUSINESS:

A. None at this Special Meeting.

NEW BUSINESS:

A. Carrie Tabar advised she is seeking other employment, in part due to untenable working environment. Discussion on moving forward. Mike Miller discussed himself and possibly Shelly Lutz, of Tuscola County Human Resources, having a meeting with 911 Dispatchers on personnel issues in dispatch. Possible alternatives discussed included further talk of possible Supervisor position and Steve Anderson would talk with Bay County 911 Central Dispatch Director and possibly inviting them to a meeting.

B. New Hire Interviews: Steve Anderson and Carrie Tabar discussed interviews conducted March 27, 2026. Out of this round of interviews they felt one applicant stood out. There is another round of interviews scheduled for April 8, 2026.

C. Tower Inspection Quote: Carrie Tabar obtained quote for tower inspection from Great Lakes Tower & Antenna in the amount of $2,600.00. Carrie will present the quote to the next regular Tuscola County Board of Commissioners meeting for approval. Steve Anderson advised he attempted to get a quote from another vendor, however has not received a response back.

D. Dispatch Vehicle Discussion: Consideration of the need for the vehicle. The vehicle is not used much currently, when needed for training transportation and local business. Possibly seeing if the Tuscola County could buy the vehicle and use as a pool vehicle or dispatch to keep vehicle. Further discussion tabled till next meeting.

DISCUSSION: None
