Decorum for Tuscola County Planning Commission Meeting

a. At the beginning of each Tuscola County Planning Commission Meeting that guests attend; all board members and guests will introduce themselves to include the township that they represent.

b. Everyone will treat each other with respect, even if you disagree with them, making a positive environment for all meeting attendees.

c. As a courtesy, if a guest plans on video/voice recording a meeting the guest shall notify the Tuscola County Planning Commission five business days prior to the meeting at the following: Tuscola County Planning Commission 125 W. Lincoln Street Caro, MI 48723, email – tcplanning@tuscolacounty.org, Telephone: 989-672-7000, Fax: 989-672-4011. (See Tuscola County Planning Commission Standing Rules and Policy - Audio Visual).

d. The chairperson will ensure that the meeting stays on topic per the agenda and on schedule. The chairperson will set a time limit for guest speakers as they speak at the podium.

e. Everyone attending the Tuscola County Planning Commission Meeting is encouraged to stay seated, professional, and courteous.

f. There shall be no yelling, swearing, rude comments, gesturing, talking over others, or side conversations during any time of the Tuscola County Planning Commission Meeting. The chairperson will provide offenders with one warning before being requested to exit the meeting.

g. These guidelines were developed to encourage open communication, focused on agenda topics to ensure a better outcome.

Lonnie B. Kester

Lonnie Kester, Chairperson

December 2024